

Job Role: Cook/Chef/Baker

We're looking for part and full-time chefs/cooks/bakers to join us in our brand-new kitchen. You must have great cooking skills and a love of food with big flavours, preferably with some experience of professional cooking or working in a fast-paced café or restaurant setting. You must be a fast learner and be able to follow direction from the senior kitchen staff to make our delicious home cooked food from scratch and prepare it efficiently, making sure it is beautifully presented for our customers. You must be reliable and flexible, able to work a mixture of weekday, weekend and evening shifts with availability throughout school holidays. We're offering a three-month trial period, leading to longer term positions, both seasonal and year-round. Starting at £13 an hour (dependent on experience) with potential for pay increase based on performance.

Requirements:

- Experience working in a fast-paced hospitality environment, preferably in a kitchen
- Must be able to work evenings, weekends and during school holidays
- Food hygiene and safety level 2 preferred
- Ability to follow instruction and receive and act upon constructive criticism
- Customer service (will be required to run food at times)
- Clear and kind verbal communication with all other staff
- Multi-tasking and organisational skills
- Excellent work ethic with eagerness to perform to a high standard and a great attendance record

Work Hours & Pay:

- Full time or part time roles available, seasonal and year-round
- Weekly rotas given 1-2 weeks in advance with variable shift lengths and ending times
- Possibility for extra shifts covering absences at short notice
- Three month trial period leading to longer term positions
- Hourly rate starting at £13 (dependent on experience) with potential for pay increase based on performance

Benefits include:

- Free staff food and drinks on shift
- 20% staff discount for you and your whole table (up to 6) when not on shift
- Good rates of pay with regular appraisals and possibility to review pay rates based on performance
- A fun and supportive working environment
- Opportunity to work in a brand new kitchen and newly refurbished restaurant
- Opportunity to learn and acquire job specific and transferable skills
